Alpha Nu Chapter, Delta Kappa Gamma Society International

Dale List is a member of Alpha Nu Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, a professional women's organization. She raised a family of seven children—4 girls and 3 boys--before going into teaching in Libertyville. As a teacher she made a difference in several ways.

Dale opened her mind to opportunities for the greater good by starting a Career Day at Rockland School, where she taught. She invited community members to talk about their careers. Her students learned that girls as well as boys could pursue any career that they had a passion for. Dale provided books highlighting careers of important people, many of them women, such as Harriet Tubman and Jane Goodall.

Dale enhanced children's physical, emotional, and social well-being by chairing a district program called "Character Counts." She worked with the entire Libertyville school district and the community to promote the six pillars of good character. Students decorated store fronts to promote a culture of kindness. Dale was the springboard that made this program so successful.

Dale's reputation as an outstanding educator followed her when she retired. She works with primary students who are in remote learning situations. Dale organizes materials and is working with pods of young children. The parents of these children are thrilled to have her offer her help.

Dale is Alpha Nu's personal choice for the Lake County Women's Coalition Honoree. She is a role model for every woman!
