

WOMEN'S EQUALITY DAY EVENT

Presented by the Lake County Women's Coalition

"TALES FROM THE PEACH ORCHARD: WHERE WOMEN'S BASEBALL HISTORY WAS MADE"

Presented by Dr. Cathy Headley, professor of kinesiology, Rockford University.

The Rockford Peaches were the top team in the All-American Girls Professional Baseball League which played from 1943-1954.

At its peak the AAGPBL had 15 teams.

The Peaches were the basis for the movie
A League of Their Own.

Headley is a historian of the Rockford Peaches and a board member of the soon-to-open International Women's Baseball Center in Rockford.
